

Let's run with the ball

Our nation is sports mad and over the next few months Rugby will be our national 'religion'
Capitalize on this unique opportunity

A special issue of Challenge, 28 pages in full colour.

Mid August 2011

It will provide information about the opportunities that exist for outreach and support to capture the impetus of the Rugby fever gripping our nation and include reports of what other churches and ministries are planning, offering and doing.

Included in this special issue will be a 12 page supplement.

It will have a programme of the games being played, items of interest, testimonies of players and helpful contact points for support and follow-up.
